

Inside the Restructuring & Recovery Team

VINCENTS

Our Team

We work where it matters most – when businesses are at a crossroads.

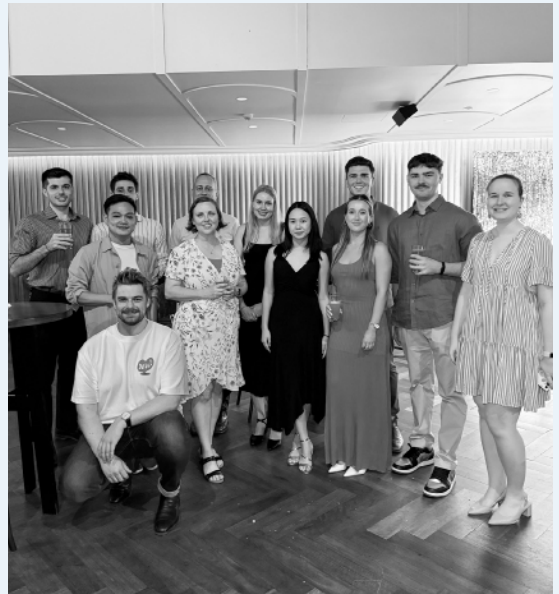

We're a close-knit, high-performing team based in Brisbane and Sydney, supporting clients through complex and challenging situations with clarity and confidence. With more than 25 years of experience, we're trusted advisors when outcomes matter most.

You'll gain hands-on experience across a broad mix of corporate and personal insolvency engagements, including voluntary administrations, court liquidations and small business restructures. Our work spans a wide range of industries – including construction, food and beverage, retail, logistics and more – ensuring no two days are the same and every engagement brings new learning opportunities.

How We Work

At Vincents, collaboration goes beyond your immediate team.

- Engage with specialists across the firm, including forensic accountants, tax experts, business advisors and lending specialists, to tackle diverse and complex client matters.
- Gain exposure to work that spans multiple service lines, with opportunities to contribute to cross-functional solutions and learn from different areas of expertise.
- Access firm-wide training beyond your core area, including technical sessions led by other divisions and practical workshops focused on communication and productivity. Within Restructuring & Recovery, we also host monthly in-house training sessions covering practical insolvency skills and technical topics, along with access to professional networks such as AICM, ARITA and WIRQ.

A Snapshot Of Our Impact

- Helped transform a national equipment hire business ($40M+ revenue) through operational improvements, fleet optimisation, and a 36-month growth plan.
- Guided a director through Safe Harbour and Small Business Restructuring - addressing $350K+ in tax debt and delivering a 53.58c dividend to creditors in just three months.
- Rescued a long-standing concreting company - preserving 50 jobs, maintaining QBCC licensing, and resolving $794K in liabilities for $177.5K.

What Our Clients Say

"Every week I was dreading dealing with my ATO debt. I finally put my ego aside spoke with the team at Vincents. I was in uncharted territory and thought the process would be painful, but it ended up being the easiest and best thing I've done for my business. The team was beyond helpful and genuinely cared about getting me back on track."

Managing Director, Hospitality Industry Client of Nick Combis

"I've worked with Henry and his team on a number of insolvency appointments now. Each time I have found Henry to be knowledgeable about insolvency law and practice, solutions-focused and calm in a crisis. Henry applies good commercial nous and engages well with all affected stakeholders. He is an excellent operator."

Keiran Breckenridge, Client of Henry McKenna

